PART B — ANSWER KEY + EXPLANATIONS

PARAPRO1-061 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The list of classroom supplies is on the teacher's desk. — Explanation: The subject is "list," which is singular, so it needs the singular verb "is."

PARAPRO1-062 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: After the morning announcements, the class began its reading lesson. — Explanation: A comma should follow the introductory phrase "After the morning announcements."

PARAPRO1-063 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Each student should bring his or her notebook to the writing workshop. — Explanation: "Each student" is singular, so the pronoun should also be singular.

PARAPRO1-064 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The teacher displayed the finished posters in the hallway. — Explanation: This is a complete sentence because it has a subject and a predicate and expresses a complete thought.

PARAPRO1-065 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The students revised their paragraphs; they added more details. — Explanation: A semicolon can correctly join two closely related independent clauses.

PARAPRO1-066 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The teachers' lounge is next to the office. — Explanation: The lounge belongs to more than one teacher, so the apostrophe comes after the plural noun "teachers."

PARAPRO1-067 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Yesterday, the students drafted their reports and submitted them to the teacher. — Explanation: The word "Yesterday" signals past tense, so both verbs should be in the past tense.

PARAPRO1-068 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Walking into the classroom, I saw the homework folders on the table. — Explanation: The opening phrase should clearly describe the person who was walking into the classroom.

PARAPRO1-069 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: effect — Explanation: "Effect" is a noun meaning result. The sentence refers to the result of careful planning.

PARAPRO1-070 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The class planted seeds and recorded the plants' growth each week. — Explanation: This option combines the two related actions clearly without creating a run-on sentence.

PARAPRO1-071 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: However — Explanation: “However” shows contrast between having useful facts and needing better organization.

PARAPRO1-072 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Students can use several strategies to prepare for a spelling quiz. — Explanation: This topic sentence clearly introduces a paragraph about ways to prepare for a spelling quiz.

PARAPRO1-073 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Students take turns watering the plants and checking the soil. — Explanation: This detail directly supports the idea that a classroom garden teaches responsibility.

PARAPRO1-074 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: The cafeteria serves lunch every day at noon. — Explanation: This sentence does not relate to preparing for the school open house.

PARAPRO1-075 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Jordan and I helped organize the books. — Explanation: “Jordan and I” is the correct subject form of the pronoun.

PARAPRO1-076 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The students read a poem by Maya Angelou on Monday. — Explanation: Proper nouns, including a person’s name and a day of the week, should be capitalized.

PARAPRO1-077 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The class finished the assignment, and the teacher collected the papers. — Explanation: A comma is used before the coordinating conjunction “and” when joining two independent clauses.

PARAPRO1-078 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: During the project, students learned to research, to outline, and to revise. — Explanation: Parallel structure keeps items in a series in the same grammatical form.

PARAPRO1-079 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The student was late because the bus arrived later than usual. — Explanation: This revision is clear and concise and avoids unnecessary wording.

PARAPRO1-080 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: The students brought three items: pencils, notebooks, and folders. — Explanation: A colon can introduce a list after a complete sentence.

PARAPRO1-081 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: “Can you add what happened because the playground was wet?” — Explanation: This guiding question helps the student complete the thought without doing the writing for the student.

PARAPRO1-082 — Correct: C — Correct Answer: Help the student place ideas into a graphic organizer with a topic, details, and conclusion. — Explanation: A graphic organizer helps the student organize ideas while keeping the student responsible for the writing.

PARAPRO1-083 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Ask students to check whether each sentence ends with a period, question mark, or exclamation point. — Explanation: This action directly supports the teacher’s direction to proofread for end punctuation.

PARAPRO1-084 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: “Can you explain one way recycling helps the environment?” — Explanation: This prompt encourages the student to add a relevant supporting detail.

PARAPRO1-085 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Encourage students to identify one sentence that is confusing and ask a question about it. — Explanation: This strategy supports peer feedback focused on clarity without taking over the teacher's role.

PARAPRO1-086 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: Use the checklist to guide the student through reviewing one item at a time. — Explanation: A revision checklist helps the student review the draft independently and systematically.

PARAPRO1-087 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Show the student how to combine related ideas while keeping the meaning clear. — Explanation: This support helps the student improve sentence flow while preserving the student's own ideas.

PARAPRO1-088 — Correct: A — Correct Answer: Add transition words such as first, next, and finally to show the order of steps. — Explanation: Sequence transitions help readers follow the steps in a how-to paragraph.

PARAPRO1-089 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: 2, 3, 4, 1 — Explanation: The sequence moves logically from observing the flower, to drawing it, to comparing drawings, to labeling the final drawing.

PARAPRO1-090 — Correct: B — Correct Answer: The students were excited to share their book reports with the class. — Explanation: The plural subject "students" needs the plural verb "were."
